

Dr.Raad muneeb Mohammed Amin Al-Sheikh

Department of Architecture

Email: raad.munib@alfarabiuc.edu.iq

Education:

PhD, University of technology 2006

MSc, University of technology 2000

BSc, University of Mousel 1975

Profile:

Member of the Iraqi Engineers union in 1976 and consultant in 1976, member of the Kuwaiti Engineers union, director of the cabinet project, director of the reconstruction of the Republican Palace and the expansion of the Republican Palace, director of the Salt Palace maintenance project, project manager for the restoration of the Flower Palace, Al-Rahman Mosque project, general manager and resident engineer for the Kuwait Business City Director of the Quality Division at the National Center for Engineering Consultation, an engineering expert at the National Center for Engineering Consultation, Head of the Department of Construction and Services, Agency in the Council of Ministers Supervisor of many villas and residential complexes, and a teacher at Al-Farabi College since 2016..

Teaching

1- Installation of buildings and building materials for the first stage of the Department of Architecture and Civil Engineering, which includes introducing students to building materials, their specifications and their uses

2- Installation of buildings for the second stage, Department of Architectural Engineering (parts of the building - types of connection, types of walls, openings, foundations, basements etc.

3- The installation of buildings for the third stage - an architectural continuation and expansion of what was taught in the second stage

4- Advanced building techniques - development in construction and the latest construction technology

5- Estimate and specifications - the fifth stage - architectural - how to prepare tables for the quantities of paragraphs for construction and their pricing and specifications of the materials used

Research Focus

Evaluation of construction buildings

Publications

Affiliations/Activities Attending many seminars, workshops and scientific courses in state departments, universities and trade unions inside and outside of Iraq