Profile...

I completed my Bachelor's degree with high distinction, as I was the first student for four years in a row, which made this distinction motivate me to travel to Egypt to complete my master's degree at Ain Shams University.

Then complete a PhD at the same university with a very good grade.

This distinction also gave me the opportunity to teach at Al-Salam College for one year only, then I moved to Al-Farabi College to be part of the founding team of the Law Department. To be assistance of the head department for four years and to be a head department for one year.
