

Dr Ayad Tariq Najm

Department of Design

PhD in Interior design

Email: ayad.tariq@alfarabiuc.edu.iq

Education:

PhD, University of Baghdad / College of Fine Arts, year 2019

Master's degree, University of Baghdad / College of Fine Arts, year 2015

Bachelor's degree, University of Baghdad / College of Fine Arts, year 2011

Profile:

Since 2019, I started teaching at Al-Farabi University College, specializing in interior design for materials, architectural drawing, interior design, history, visualization, directing, and interior design supplements. Over the years at the college, I have been teaching until now, with the subjects of the fourth stage of the project, research, psychology and design foundations, starting from the first stage to the fourth stage.

Teaching

- 1. Interior design of spatial and kinetic distribution within the space
- 2. A project chosen by the student is a reality and is developed
- 3. Research what is included in the project for the student's graduation
- 4. Techniques of presentation and production, techniques of raw materials, and formal and architectural presentation
- 5. Psychology is the study of human psychology, the designer and the recipient

Publications and Research Focus

Appearance, content and methods in the interior spaces are being written

Affiliations/Activities