Assist. Lecturer Obai Ayad Hussein

Department of Design

Master of Interior Design

Responsible for the Quality Assurance Unit and E-Learning Unit and the seminar's unit in the design department

Email: asst.lec.obai.ayad@alfarabiuc.edu.iq

Education:
MSc, University Science Malaysia, 2018
BSc, University of Baghdad / College of Fine Arts, 2008

Profile:
- Freelance designer (interior and graphic design) for many projects
- Held many educational courses in Baghdad and Malaysia
- Senior Designer of the Design Department at Crystal Factory for Decoration, Design and Furniture Industry, Baghdad, supervising machines / CNC, Laser cutting, UV printing
- Designer in the Engineering Office for Architecture and Design, Baghdad, interior design
- Designer at Al-Baghdadi Company, Baghdad, graphic design
- Designer at Asfar Printing and Sorting Company, Baghdad, graphic design
- Designer at Nineveh Advertising Company, Baghdad, graphic design

Teaching

1- Computer subject (3dsmax): a subject that gives the student an idea and an application in a three-dimensional computer graphics program that specializes in creating three-dimensional drawings, models and images. A scene that simulates reality, whether in the form of a picture.

2- Human engineering subject: a subject that explains the relationship between (man - environment - work) and in this sense the study can include not only the work environment, but also numbers, furniture, raw materials and material things for work and space, as well as organizing space activities in the form of groups and in the form of Lines such as production lines or paths of movement in spaces.

3- Computer subject (Adobe Photoshop): a subject that gives the student an idea and application in the Photoshop program, which is one of the programs most used by designers, website developers, graphic designers, photographers, and other creative professions, as it provides them with many advantages and tools to do many things of tasks.

4- Computer subject (Adobe Muse): a subject that gives the student an idea and an application in the Muse program, which is a program for designing websites without the need to use special software codes for the graphic designer. From different programs for the design of the site.

Research Focus

Design and its behavioral impact on humans

Publications

Affiliations/Activities

1. Member of the committee for preparing the Annual guide of Al-Farabi University College
2. Member of the committee for preparing the Journal of Al-Farabi University College
3. Member of the website preparation committee for Al-Farabi University College
4. Member of the committee for preparing the magazine of the Design Department at Al-Farabi University College
5. Supervising the design and implementation of many publications related to the various activities of the departments of Al-Farabi University College